

LECTURE SERIES WINTERTERM 2016/17

Topics in Current Economic Research

Wednesday, 12 noon – 2 p.m., HS14

- 26/10/16 Mark McGovern (Belfast): Can Mortality Declines Induce Fertility Transitions.
- 02/11/16 Stefan Bauernschuster (Passau): Bismarck's Health Insurance and the Mortality Decline.
- 09/11/16 Hartmut Egger (Bayreuth): Jobs, Tasks and Wages: A Trade Perspective.
- 16/11/16 Christian Keuschnigg (St. Gallen): Heterogeneous Tax Sensitivity of Firm-level Investments
- 23/11/16 Jochen Streb (Mannheim): Does Social Security Crowd Out Private Savings? The Case of Bismarck's System of Social Insurance.
- 30/11/16 Erik Hornung (Bayreuth): From Serfdom to Freedom: The Economic Origins of the Emancipation of Labor.
- 07/12/16 Giovanni Facchini (Nottingham): Immigrant franchise and immigration policy: Evidence from the Progressive Era.
- 21/12/16 Sebastian Vollmer (Göttingen): Determinants and consequences of childhood undernutrition in low- and middle-income countries
- 11/01/17 Klaus Prettner (Hohenheim): The Quest for Status and R&D-based Economic Growth
- 19/01/17 Schlosskolloquium 6.00 p.m HS 5
Kevin O'Rourke (Oxford): When Britain turned inward: Trade policy and the shift towards Empire in the 1930s.
- 01/02/17 Joe Hilgard (Philadelphia): Advances in Meta-Analysis