

UNIVERSITY OF HOHENHEIM

RESEARCH SEMINAR IN ECONOMICS Summer Term 2019

Wednesday, 12:00 – 13:15, HS14

Apr 03	Anne Brockmeyer (World Bank) - Taxation, Information, and Withholding: Evidence from Costa Rica
Apr 24	Sebastian Braun (University of Bayreuth) – The Local Environment Shapes Refugee Integration: Evidence from Post-war Germany
May 08	Andreas Irmen (CREA, University of Luxembourg) - Automation, Factor Shares, and Growth in the Era of Population Aging
May 15	Dorothea Kübler (WZB Berlin) – How Lotteries in School Choice Help to Level the Playing Field
May 22	Felix Bierbrauer (University of Cologne) – Politically feasible reforms of non-linear tax systems
May 29	Jochen Mankart (Bundesbank, Frankfurt/Main) - House Price Expectations and Housing Choice
June 19	Nathanael Vellekoop (SAFE and Goethe University, Frankfurt/Main) – Inflation expectations and choices of households
June 26	Lisandra Flach , (LMU, Munich) - Quality and Gravity in International Trade
July 03	Dirk Rübhelke (TU Freiberg) – Climate Finance and Impure Public Goods
July 10	Michael Jetter (University of Western Australia, Perth) – Military intervention via drone strikes